

Guide to Haveli

Departure Time

Departure time is 10.00 am. We would be very grateful if you would adhere to this time as this allows us time to prepare the property for the next guests.

Clean Bed Linen and Towels

Fresh linen and bathroom towels are provided on Saturdays, which is changeover day. If your stay is for two weeks, then fresh linen and towels will be provided on your second Saturday. Please contact the housekeeper to arrange a suitable time to do so.

Heating

We have air source heating and underfloor heating for your comfort and convenience. Each room has its own thermostat to control the temperature there. Simply use the up and down buttons to set your desired temperature, and the system will do the rest.

Water Heating

The air source heating also caters for hot water. You don't need to do anything, other than turn on the hot tap!

Fuse Box

The fuse box is located in the utility room but you shouldn't need to go near this during your stay.

Parking

We have plenty of car parking at Haveli so help yourself! We have a 7Kw electric car (EV) charger on the side of the house. Please feel free to use this but you'll need to bring your own cable!

Dogs

We love dogs and they are welcome to stay at Haveli! But please let us know if you are bringing your furry friend before your stay.

Please keep your pet under control and clear up after them. Pets are not permitted in the bedrooms or on the furniture. Please do not leave your pet in the property unsupervised, as this can result in considerable damage to the property and distress to the pet.

TV

All TV's have Freeview. They are also 'smart', web connected and supports all major streaming services. Please feel free to use your own account credentials to access these streaming services, but please remember to log out of these before you depart!

Our Recommended Days Out

- Take a boat from Marazion to St. Michaels Mount and explore this iconic castle residence and community. Return via boat or, if the tides out, walk back over the causeway and enjoy the beach and drinks/eats at The Godolphin www.stmichaelsmount.co.uk
www.thegodolphin.com
- Take a helicopter or ferry to the Isles of Scilly and enjoy its unspoilt beauty.
www.visitislesofscilly.com
- Visit Flambards Theme Park for a day of amazing rides and family fun, whatever the weather!
www.flambards.co.uk
- Take a trip to Newlyn Art Gallery to take in the local art scene, then grab a world-famous Jelbert's Ice Cream as you walk down to Newlyn Harbour (Cornwall's largest fishing port). Newlyn has become a real local foodie spot, so plenty of places to visit and things to eat. Continue your walk up into the picturesque fishing village of Mousehole. Plenty of great lunch and dinner options here (we like The Old Coastguard) newlynartgallery.co.uk
www.oldcoastguardhotel.co.uk
- A short drive away is Porthleven, a harbour and foodie destination. Plenty to see and do here and some of Cornwall's finest restaurants to feed your hunger (Jude Kereama's Kota Kai is well worth a visit!)
www.kotakai.co.uk/
- Head to Lands End, an "area of outstanding natural beauty" and the most westerly point of mainland England. Lots of attractions to see and take part in, and plenty of walks, all within this breath-taking setting.
landsend-landmark.co.uk/
- En-route to Land's End is the quite spectacular Minack Theatre, and you'll never see a theatre with such a stunning backdrop. Take in a show if you can, or just visit the site itself and then walk down to Porthcurno, one of the prettiest coves in Cornwall.
www.minack.com/
- Take a short drive to St. Erth station and park at the large car park (fees apply). Grab your tickets for St. Ives and travel on the branch line train for a journey like no other. Spend the day at one of the glorious beaches in St. Ives, visit the Tate, or take in the shops.
greatscenicrailways.co.uk/lines/st-ives-bay-line/

- Got a budding skateboarder or scooter rider with you? Head to Mounts Hawke for a unique indoor skate park. There's also an outdoor bike track to test your skills too. Once you've burnt a few calories, head to the Old School Bar and Kitchen to replenish.
www.mounthawkeskatepark.com/
- If you like water slides and big splashes, then Ships and Castles in Falmouth is the place for you. Once you've dried off, head to Falmouth and take a Water Taxi to the Pandora Inn at Mylor Bridge. Grab a table on the pontoon for drinks, lunch and a spot of crabbing!

Houses and Gardens of Interest

- Trereife House, in Penzance, Cornwall, has it all. A beautiful Manor House, stunning gardens, interesting and romantic history and a wonderfully warm welcome. When you visit Trereife House and garden, you're in for a treat. Tours, led by the owner of the house and descendent of the original owners, Tim le Grice, will give you a fascinating insight into the estate's Queen Anne architecture, history and previous owners. Trereife is open for day trips in the summer season for groups of five or more and by appointment in the Winter, at 2pm on Wednesday, Friday and Sunday. trereife.co.uk/visit/
- Trengwainton Gardens is a National Trust country house and garden situated in Madron, near Penzance. The garden is noted for its collection of exotic trees and shrubs and offers views over Mount's Bay and The Lizard.
www.nationaltrust.org.uk/trengwainton-garden
- The Lost Gardens of Heligan is 200 acres of garden history, mystery and romance. Thirty years ago, Heligan's historic gardens were unknown and unseen; lost to the brambles of time since the outbreak of WW1. Only the chance discovery of a door in the ruins led to the restoration of this once great estate. Today, The Lost Gardens have been put back where they belong: in pride of place among the finest gardens in England.

Local Events

- Flora Day in Helston is one of the oldest surviving May customs (check out the date online as it changes annually), celebrating the end of Winter and the coming of Spring. Expect large crowds, plenty of food and drink and dancing!
helstonfloraday.org.uk
- Tom Bawcock's Eve is a festival held on the 23rd December annually and celebrates the efforts of Mousehole resident Tom Bawcock to lift a famine from the village. Expect a lantern parade, bustling pubs with a lively atmosphere and of course famous Stargazy pie (we won't spoil the surprise!)

- Golowan Festival is a week-long festival to celebrate Midsummer and has grown to become a significant arts and culture festival. It takes place in late June and Mazey Day is the culmination of the week, consisting of parades through the streets of Penzance, dancing and food and drink – it really is a spectacle not to be missed. The festival takes place in June, every year.
